CDBG RENEWAL

DISCUSSION

Adam Zettel, City Manager went over the process of the Community Development Block Grant funding starts at federal level then passed to the state then to county which then we get an allocation every three years of about $30,000. We have in the past spent 15% towards senior center services and the other 85% was spent on streetscapes and parking lots. Last year we put some of the funds towards a demolition of a house on Morrish Road. The county has requested that the city decide if we want to opt in or out of this program for the next three year period. He requested the council make a decision so he can prepare a resolution for the next meeting. The council agreed to opt in on the program and would like Mr. Zettel to prepare a resolution for the next meeting.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT COORDINATOR

Discussion

Adam Zettel, City Manager updated the council on the current emergency plan that is in place by the county that the city is included in.

Rae Lynn Hicks is interested in an awareness level for the council and would like the council to take some of the National Incident Management Systems online classes. She would like to have Rob Seeley, Assistant Emergency Management Manager, to come in and speak to the council.

MEETING OPENED TO THE PUBLIC:

Steve Shumaker resident at 7446 Country Meadow, commented on only having one bid on fencing and carpeting to choose from. He commented on the emergency plan.

REMARKS BY COUNCILMEMBERS:

Councilmember Porath thanked Chief Brent Cole and Lt. Matt Bade for attending the meeting tonight. He also wanted to remind everyone of the hazardous waste drop-off this weekend.

Councilmember Cramer wanted to reinstate that our community needs to prepare in case of a disaster. He also commented that it was a good day for the city to be able to pay off the sewer bond.

Councilmember Florence wanted to let everyone know of some youth programs, Youth Quest, Teen Quest and Success that he was made aware of at the small cities meeting. He believes the neighborhood watch program is very effective and is a good program.

Councilmember Hicks commented the council needs some open discussion on emergency planning in the near future.

Mayor Pro Tem Pinkston mentioned the success of past fundraisers and is looking to put together another one for the Metro Police Authority K9 purchase.

Mayor Krueger mentioned that hometown days is coming up.
